Docket No. CP2018-26

USPS MOTION TO ADJUST PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE
(October 19, 2017)

Yesterday, the United States Postal Service submitted Parcel Select Contract 24 for the Commission's review and approval. In its pleading, the Postal Service requested that the Commission expedite, to the extent practicable, its review of the contract, so that a decision may be issued before November 1, 2017.

Today, in its notice establishing Docket Nos. MC2018-13 and CP2018-26 to review Parcel Select Contract 24, the Commission set a comment deadline of October 30, 2017. The Postal Service is concerned that this deadline may not leave the Commission with sufficient time after comments are filed to issue a decision before November 1st.

Therefore, to the extent that an earlier comment deadline may assist the Commission's expedited review, the Postal Service moves for the Commission to adjust the procedural schedule as the Commission deems appropriate to facilitate a decision being issued on or before October 31, 2017. As it noted in its pleading yesterday, the Postal Service regrets that the complexity of this contract prevented the parties from finalizing and filing the contract earlier, and the Postal Service will make every effort to respond to information requests before any comment deadline.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
